Wholehearted Prayers

You must put your heart in prayer, if prayer would put heart in you. Your prayers, whether in public or private, should be heart-felt expressions to God. Just open your heart and let the sincerity and simplicity of what is there come forth. The main thing is not the arithmetic of prayers—how numerous they are; nor the range of prayers—how long they are; nor the linguistics of prayers—how grammatical they are; nor the rhetoric of prayers—how eloquent they are; nor the music of prayers—how sweet the voice is; nor the posture of prayers—how the body poses. The chief factor is the heart.

Emergency Phone number: when your prayers grow narrow or selfish Call Psalm 67

I cried with my whole heart; hear me, O Lord: I will keep thy statutes.—Psalms 119:145

How to become a Christian:

HEAR Romans 10:17    BELIEVE Mark 16:16    REPENT Matt 4:17    CONFESS Romans 10:10    BE BAPTIZED Acts 2:38

Please keep in your hearts and prayers on this holiday, all our veterans, along with our citizens that are being held in foreign countries under false pretenses. Pray that hearts might be softened also towards the kind people of Ukraine who have endured so much.

Merry Christmas and Best Wishes for 2023
